FOREWORD

From the beginning of our high school career, we have been looking forward to our graduation with mixed hope and fear. We are proud that we have attained this goal, yet we approach the future with skepticism. Reviewing our record as a class, we see mistakes as well as outstanding accomplishments. The 1968 HUNTINGTONIAN will offer us an opportunity to keep this year constantly before us. Within its pages lies a record of the disappointments and pleasures, close friends and casual acquaintances. Into these pages are poured many emotions.

I am Huntington High School,

I am a friend and hours of study,

I am entertainment and a moment of relaxation,

I am labor and an ideal, but above all . . .

I AM YOU.

Dedication

MR. THEODORE E. BACOTE

With greatful appreciation for services to Huntington High School in the highest tradition of loyalty and devotion, we dedicate the 1968 HUNTINGTONIAN to Mr. Theodore E. BaCote, Jr., football line coach and assistant track coach.

Known as a firm, yet understanding coach who gives freely of his time not only to the young men who play football or run track, but offers it just as freely to anyone who asks it. Coach BaCote is warmly remembered by hundreds of students who pass through Huntington High School.

Mr. BaCote is a native of Ansonia, Connecticut, where he attended Ansonia High School. He is a graduate of Virginia Union University where he was captain of the 1959 undefeated football team. While serving in the United States Marine Corps, he was a member of the Camp Lejuene football team for three years.

He is presently employed at the Dunbar Elementary School where he serves as a physical education instructor. His extra-curricular activities have varied all the way from coaching football to membership in the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, the N.E.A., N.N.E.A., the V.E.A. and the Hampton Rhoads Boys Club.

He is married to Mamye E. BaCote, teacher of social studies at Huntington.

COACH POSSESSES MANY TALENTS

While instilling into his players a sound knowledge of the fundamentals of line play, Coach Teddy BaCote demonstrates other skills and qualities as football line coach.

Coach BaCote discusses the outcome of the 1968 football team's record with coaches T. Madden, R. Crittenden and former Coach W. Kane.

THE MAN BEHIND OUR YEARBOOK

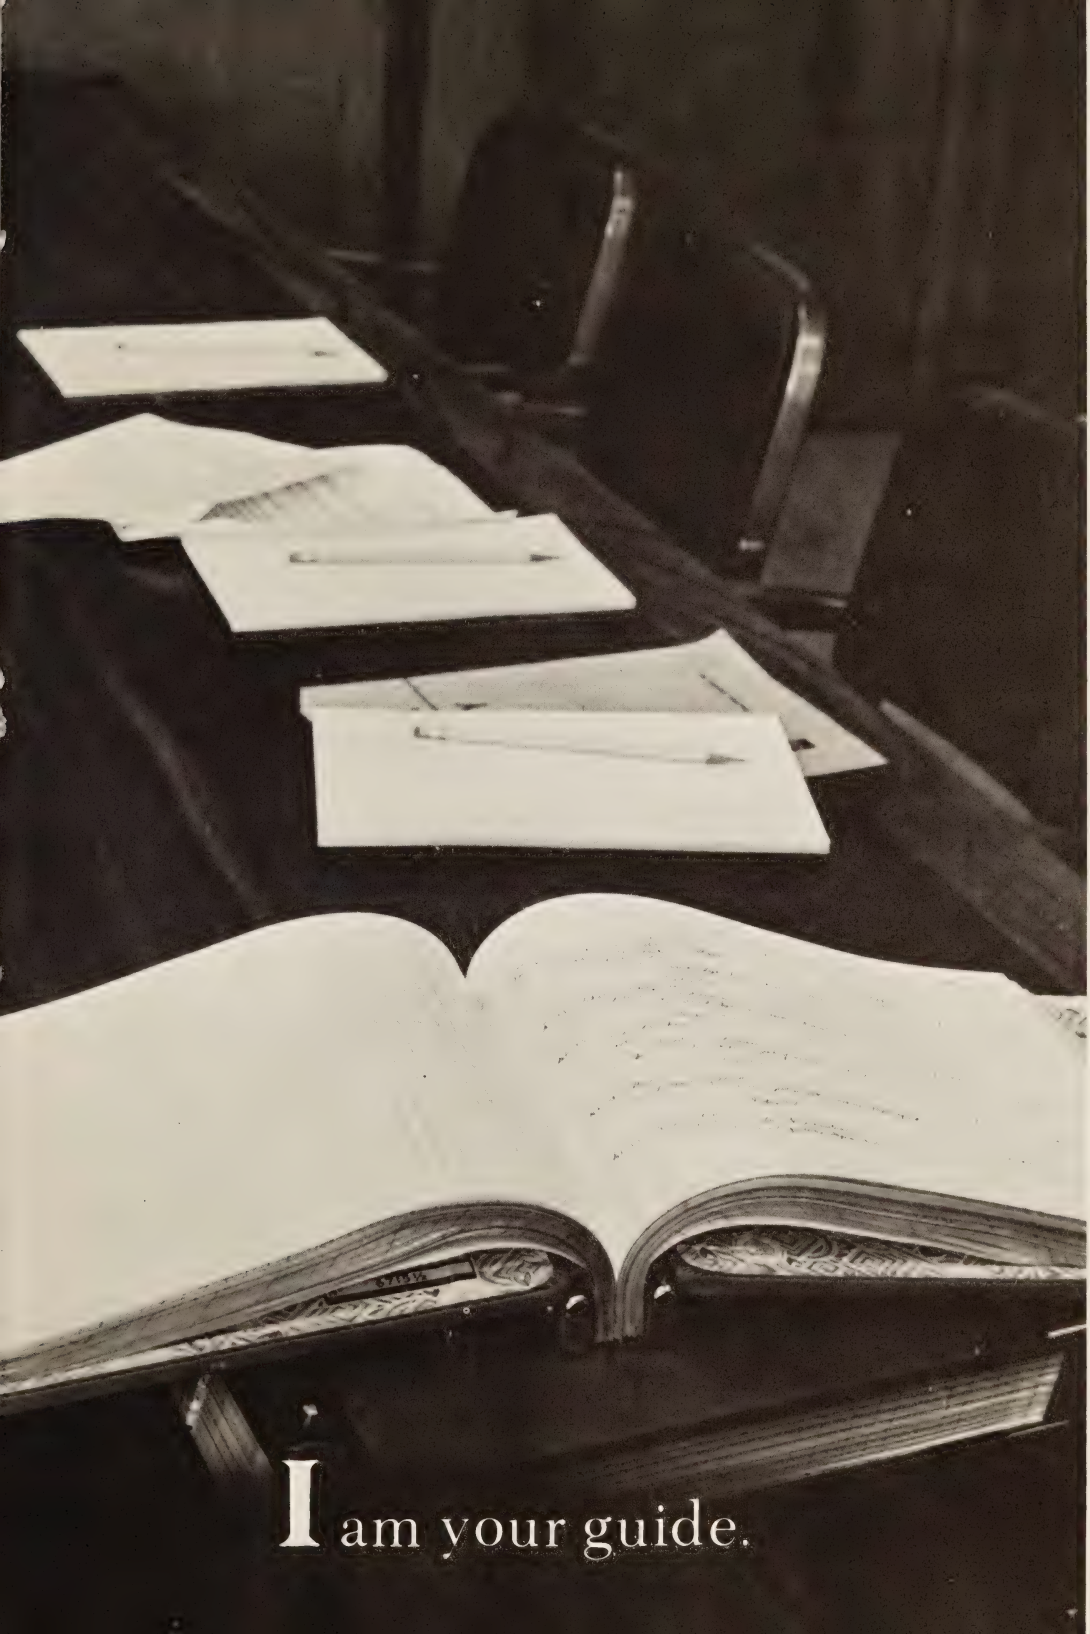

Mr. Pleasant makes one of his numerous journeys to obtain money for our yearbook through the soliciting ofads.

Eventually history will reveal the honor due great men, but so powerful is the force of some personalities that we need not wait for history's acknowledgment. For twenty-two years, Mr. Noel J. Pleasant has worked diligently with the HUNTINGTONIAN staff in soliciting the many advertisements which help make the production of our yearbook possible.

It is for this reason that we, the class of 1968, feel that we voice the sentiment of the alumni as well as the student body, when we say, "Thank you, Mr. Pleasant, for your help, direction, and generosity in making this another outstanding production."

Our advertising boys, Michael Armfield and Napoleon Davis aid Mr. Pleasant in tallying the account of ad subscriptions for the day.

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The School Board of the City of Newport News works to provide expert assistance in improving the educational policy and program of the school system. This corporate body has knowledge and experience in the field of educational policies which are valuable in improving the curriculum offered in the schools and the technique of teaching. The board consists of seven members charged with the duties of employment of all personnel and school finance.

Mr. George McIntosh, Superintendent of the Newport News Schools.

Mr. Gordon F. Pullen, Jr., Mrs. John Paulson, Dr. J. T. Jobe, III, Mr. J. M. Dozier, Jr., Mr. Richard Newman, Dr. Stanley Grannum, Dr. W. T. Watkins, Jr.

WE SHALL FOREVER CHERISH THE HIGH IDEALS TAUGHT US WITHIN THESE WALLS

OUR ALMA MATER

As we, the graduating class of nineteen hundred and sixty-eight, prepare to take leave of Huntington High School, we wish to acknowledge with deep appreciation the remarkable support of our Alma Mater.

The key to the world of knowledge and learning is discovered in every institution of learning. Whether our objective is to learn or to teach, we realize the significance of the educational value found within the walls of our Alma Mater.

For many years Huntington has provided many of us with information essential for a rewarding and enjoyable future. For many trying and happy years she has given us guidance, consideration, patience, confidence and love. She has richly and willingly contributed to the most memorable years of our lives.

As a token of our warm appreciation for your priceless gifts, we sincerely dedicate to you, our beloved school, this page of the 1968 HUNTINGTONIAN.

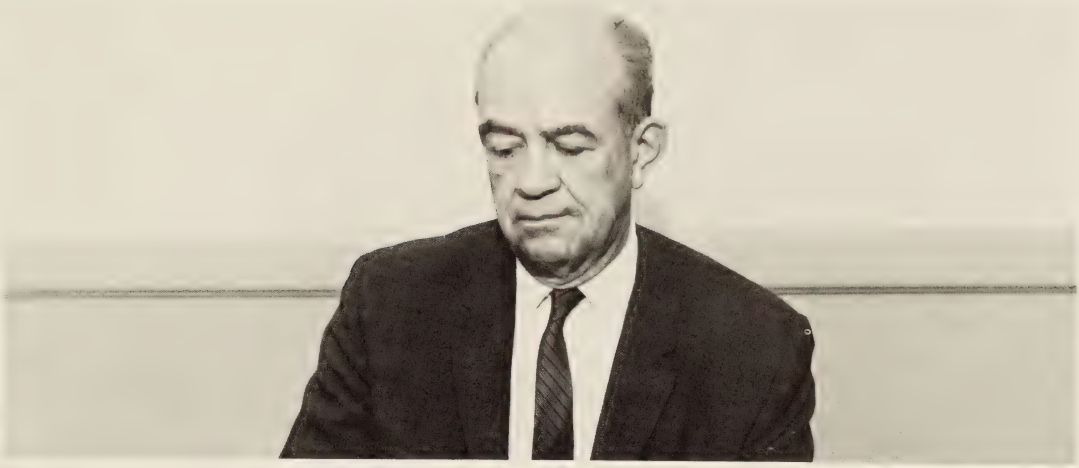

A HYMN TO HUNTINGTON

Guide well our thoughts and send them ever upwards;
Cast out the darkness and bring forth the light.
O, wondrous God, of beauty and all wisdom
Spread out thy hand and show us all thy might.
Show how each one of us may gain more wisdom
If we should live by thy Great Rule of Right.

Dear Huntington, to Thee we sing our praises
Of times gone by and never more shall be.
Within your walls we gain a lasting knowledge
Of faith and hope and love that flows from Thee.
With humble hearts we raise our voices high
We love you dear when we are far or nigh.

CHORUS
O, God, as we review the worth of Huntington,
Realize do we that all strength comes from Thee.
Still guide our minds to reach a greater height
And help us know how thankful we should be.

PRINCIPAL COMPETENTLY GUIDES HUNTINGTON YOUTH

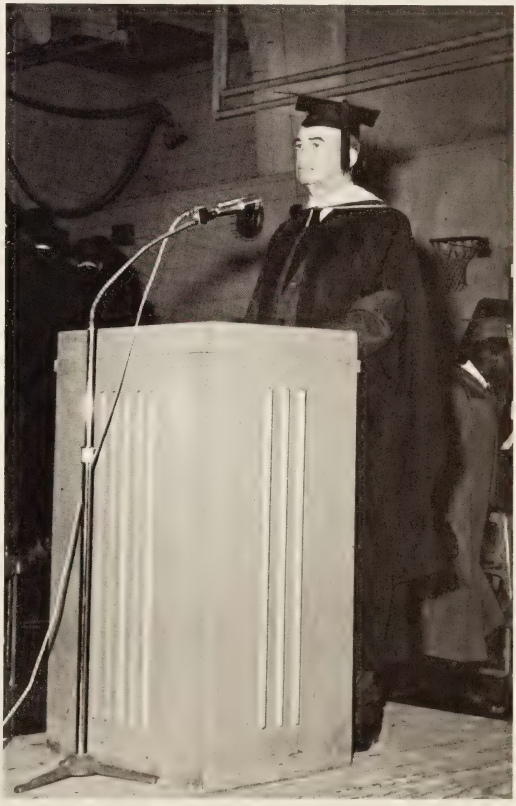

Affably, Mr. W. D. Scales is always ready to give friendly advice to Huntington students.

In the history of any school, there are always those whose influences and contributions exceed mere responsibility and whose memory remains indelibly stamped on the minds and consciences of all who come in contact with them. At Huntington High School such a person is Mr. W. D. Scales, our principal.

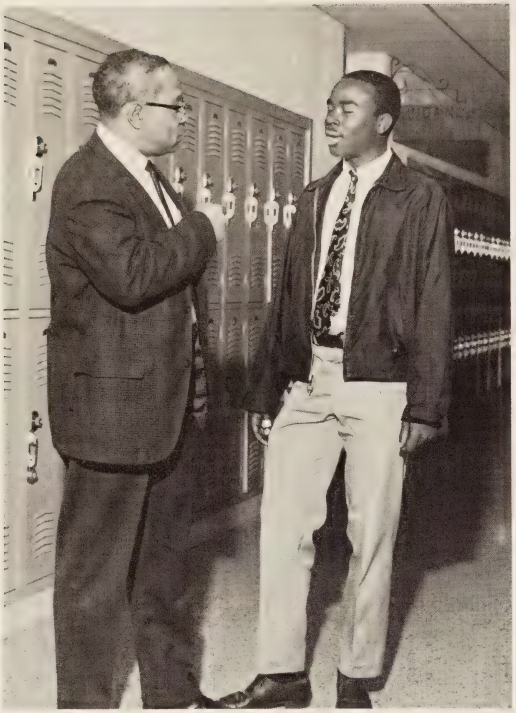

He has executed his responsibilities in such a way that each member of the Huntington family has felt the warm glow of friendliness, the sincerity, and the interest exhibited by him. During the past years he has worked extensively with the senior class and entire student body encouraging them to develop their full potentialities.

May the noble example he has set inspire many more Huntingtonians to attain success in their chosen fields of endeavor and to live worthwhile lives in our changing society.

Mr. Scales imparts final words of inspirational guidance to seniors.

YEARS IN

YOUNG MAN, WHY AREN'T YOU IN CLASS?

"My task is to keep as many children in as many classes for as long as possible in hope that the knowledge imparted will help each one to make a satisfactory adjustment in the social order."

It is this kind of diligent dedication to duty that has made Mr. Clarence Johnson and Mr. Wilbur Holmes important cogs in the machinery here at Huntington for many years. They constantly look for new ways to ignite within each child a burning desire to fulfill his obligation as a student, thus laying the foundation upon which good citizenship may be based. They attempt to imbue them with the idea of education as the salvation of posterity.

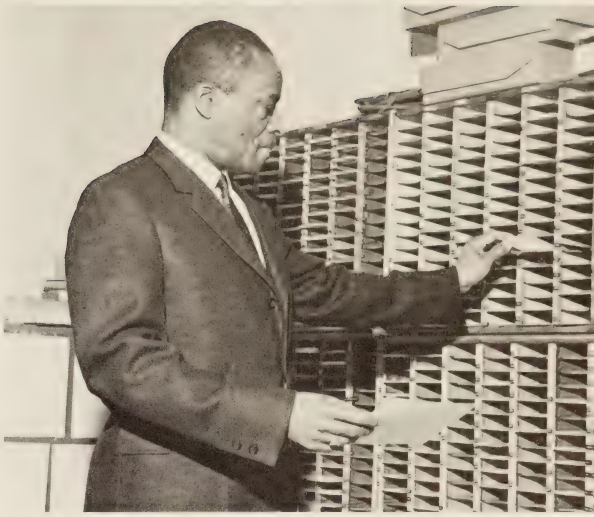

Mr. Johnson realizes that a school as large and complex as ours demands many hours of careful planning.

RETROSPECT

In discharging their demanding responsibilities, their attitudes remain constant and their personalities radiant. In their association with students and peers, they are straightforward, considerate, and just.

As we retrospect the past years and their efforts here, we would like to express our gratitude. To Mr. Wilbur Holmes and Mr. Clarence Johnson we say, "You were not unmindful of the complexity of your tasks, yet you accepted the challenge." We, the class of 1968, salute you.

The International Business Machine has added the task of sorting cards to the numerous jobs performed by Mr. Holmes.

Louis Harper visits Mr. Holmes for wise counsel concerning scholastic achievement.

GROWING HUNTINGTON NECESSITATES

Typing letters, recording grades and keeping accurate records are among the many duties of the principal's personal secretary, Mrs. V. James; however, she still finds time to help Larry Page solve a minor porblem.

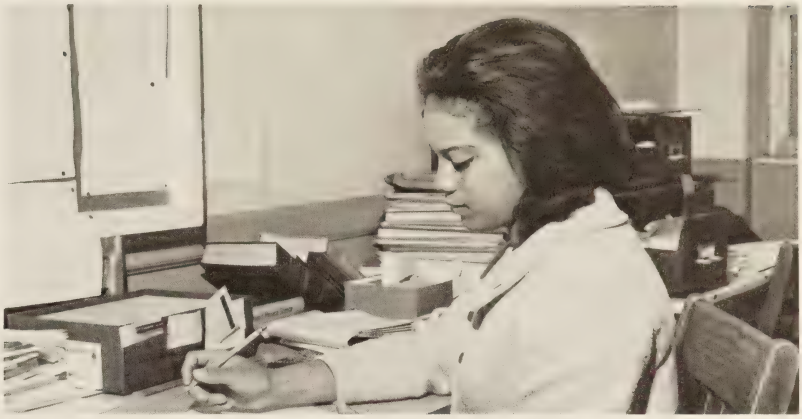

With a high degree of efficiency, Mrs. Seaborn checks the hundreds of pupil affidavits and federal forms which must be completed and filed in the office of the school board.

Mrs. L. Kea contributes much to the success of the school's program, for she is the bookkeeper. She is responsible for a complete record of all financial transactions.

INCREASE IN SECRETARIAL STAFF

With a high degree of accuracy, Mrs. Cherry works diligently in the scheduling room.

Years after graduation, former Huntington students often request the school to send transcripts to colleges and prospective employers. Mrs. Mask realizes that a complete and accurate record of every child is important.

A complete and accurate record of each child's attendance must be kept. It necessitates the daily typing of a list to be distributed to all teachers--that's only part of Miss Jones' job.

The staff utilizes the services offered by Miss Gregory in obtaining information concerning student data.

GUIDANCE STAFF PROVIDES

Counselors are available for appointments at anytime during the school day. Mrs. Mildred Wilson, Director of Guidance and Dean of Girls, urges students and parents to use the services of the guidance center.

The guidance department assembles for the use of students information concerning vocations, colleges and universities, and scholarship assistance. Mr. Carter aids Alex Bowens in helping make a wise choice.

The guidance department consisting of a director of guidance and a staff counselor for each grade level provides many valuable services to the students. Chief among these services is the planning of each student's educational program. The counselors assist students in selecting the courses which will provide them with the best preparation for school and life.

The guidance program at Huntington aims to assist students in selecting vocations, colleges and universities, and scholarship assistance. Each student should keep in close touch with the counselor to whom he is assigned.

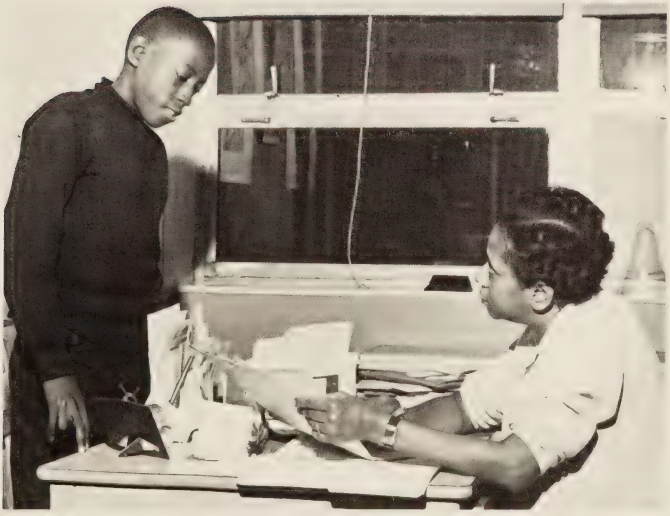

MANY VALUABLE SERVICES

The staff maintains for each student a continuous inventory of the student's achievements, abilities, interests, and problems. Through such records Mrs. Lipscomb is able to help each student realize his maximum potential and to solve his problems realistically.

Information in the area of occupational education and social guidance is made available to students. Emma Flood, a senior and a member of Miss M. Smith's homeroom, finds her homeroom teacher to be an attentive listener as she discusses her problems.

For an effective program, individual counseling must be available to all pupils. Mrs. V. Batten assists Harold Bell in selecting courses for next school term.

HAPPINESS LIES IN GOOD HEALTH HABITS

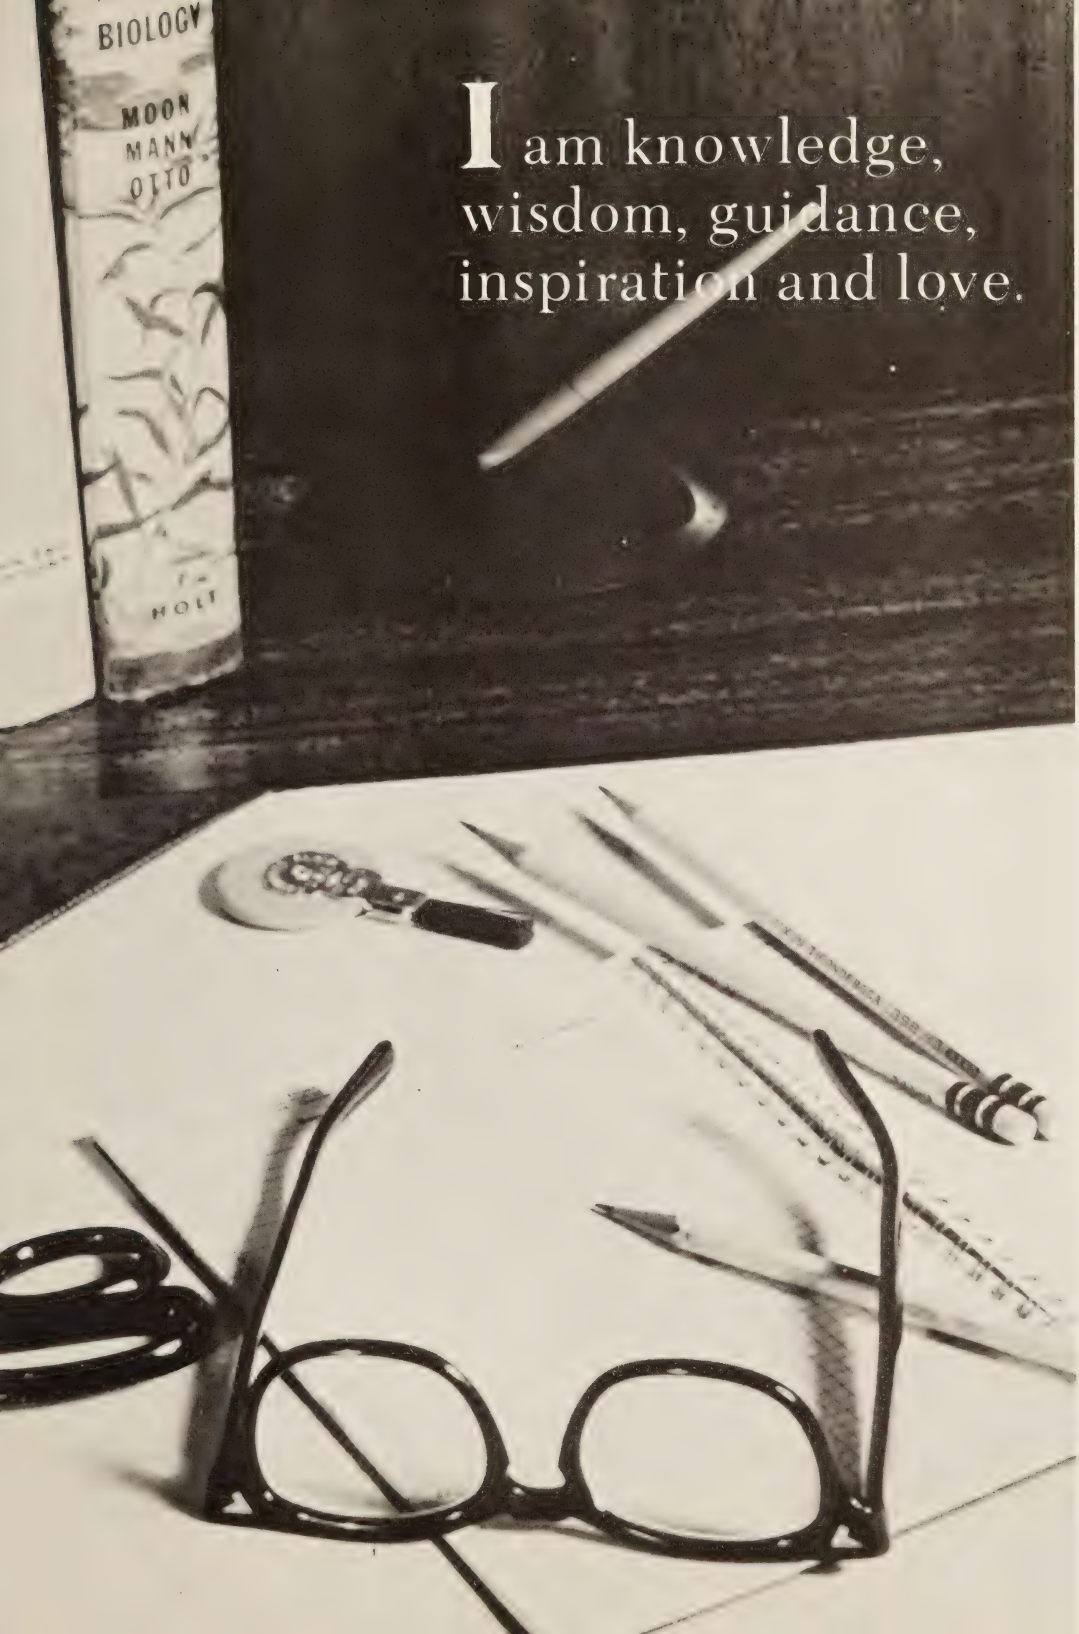

By telephoning our Health Center Mrs. Holloway makes sure the school has its needed medical supplies.

Nurse Holloway is constantly emphasizing the importance of practicing good health habits. She is always available to give counsel on such topics as physical and mental hygiene. An accurate up-to-date medical record is kept of all students at Huntington. Her many daily tasks include checking pulses, taking temperatures, administering first-aid and prescribing the proper medi-medication for minor illnesses.

Nurse Holloway puts into practice her first aid skills by prescribing medication for a minor cut.

I am knowledge,
wisdom, guidance,
inspiration and love.

CAFETERIA STAFF

Preparing a hot well balanced and attractive meal for over one thousand students is quite a task; however, under the direction of Mrs. M. East, the cafeteria staff manages to meet this demand admirably. Three waves of hungry, rustling students are met every day by these women who cook and serve the food eaten everyday by Huntingtonians. Parents are able to send their children to school confident that a nutritious meal will be available to them.

An apple, a bouquet of flowers, and a little music enchance a busy day for Mrs. M. East, who checks the final tally of today's meals.

Mr. Manassie Vaughn, Mr. Pete Jeffers, Mr. Joseph Forbes, Mr. Theodore Walker, Mr. Edward Miller.

JANITORIAL STAFF

The Janitorial Staff must see that the school is kept neat, clean, and attractive in appearance at all times. These duties are very essential to the student's well-being, physically as well as mentally.

In the fall of the year, there are leaves to be raked, halls to be swept, and desks to be dusted. Winter brings cold winds and snow--both requiring heat for our comfort. These are the people with never-ending and frequently thankless duties to perform.

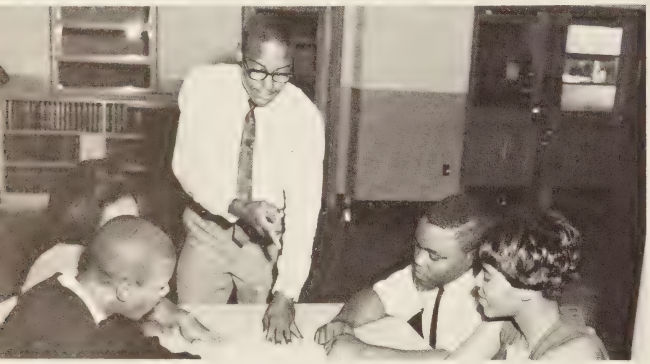

Mrs. Lucille Tynes, Mrs. Doris Jones, Mrs. Sarah Gatling, Mrs. Cynitha Mohammed, Mrs. Rosa Welch.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT O

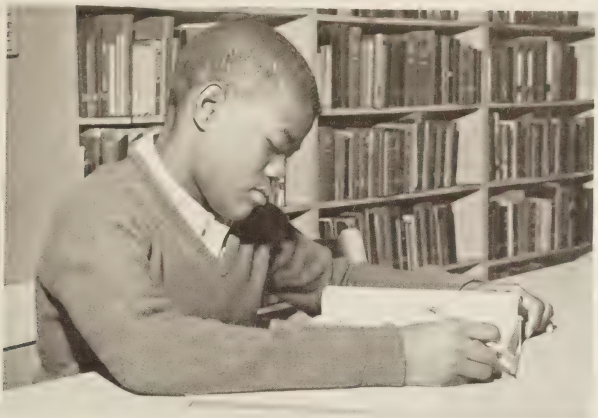

F BEING THEMSELVES

Leading the class of 1968 through a full year of meetings were Deitra Coles, treasurer; Aaron Smith, president; Beverly Turner, secretary; George Moore, assistant secretary.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

NATIONAL ACHIEVEMENT SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Phyllis Atkins and Aaron Smith have been named finalists in the fourth National Achievement Scholarship program, through which they may be rewarded four-year college scholarships ranging from $1,000 to $6,000.

Phyllis looks forward to majoring in creative arts or in early childhood education. Her interests are art, fashion designing, mathematics and drafting.

Aaron's greatest interest is in the social and physical sciences.

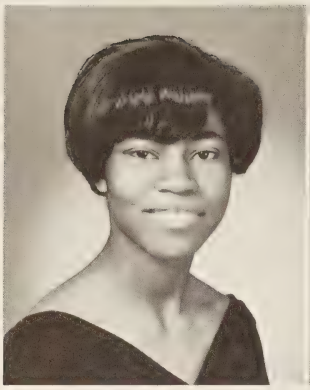

Both take time from their busy day to discuss their future plans with Mr. Carter, one of the guidance counselors.

I am labor and reward.

SENIORS FIND THEIR PLACES

Representatives from various colleges and universities visit our campus each year recruiting seniors.

The triangle proves to be an invaluable instrument in the drafting class. Phyllis Atkins and James Baker expedite much time in mathematical computation.

TIME OUT FOR A BREAK
Our five years at Huntington have been filled with moments of laughter, excitement, friendship and study. These years have contained activities that have made our stay here most memorable.

Namoi Davis, Sandra Morrison, Pamela Gallope and Tanya Johnson were selected by their respective homerooms to represent them during the homecoming festivities.

Shirley Arrington displays her clerical skills.

Ralph Hawkins, Matthew Pickney and Linwood Ward are members of the Civil Air Patrol.

I am moments of relaxation and entertainment.

ACTIVITIES

THERE'S MUSIC IN THE AIR

Over a period of many years, the choir at Huntington has served the school in various ways. Under the direction of Mr. Arthur Bouldin, this organization has delighted the students and community with its repertoire of spirituals, popular songs and classical selections. This year's choir proudly continues the Huntington tradition of service and excellence in the field of music.

WE'VE GOT RHYTHM

Few people realize the extensive planning and practice that is required to produce a band of Huntington's caliber. Many laborious hours are spent by members of the band in preparing for a performance. While most students have not yet departed for school, one may see the Viking band almost every morning working earnestly to perfect a marching formation.

MAJORETTES

BAND MEMBER TO TOUR EUROPE

Since his matriculation at Huntington, Howard Alston, Jr., has exemplified the qualities of becoming another "Cannonball Adderley." For most Huntingtonians have enjoyed his rendition on assembly programs and concerts. He has even had the honor of entertaining the patients at the Veterans Administrative Hospital.

Howard was first place winner in the Lions Club Bland Memorial Scholarship Contest. For two years he held first chair in the Virginia District Area Regional Band by scoring ninety-nine points out of one hundred. He has received superior ratings as soloist at musical festivals, and has been selected as a member of the 1968 Mid-East All Star High School Band.

VIKINGS NAIL NORCOM, 64—62

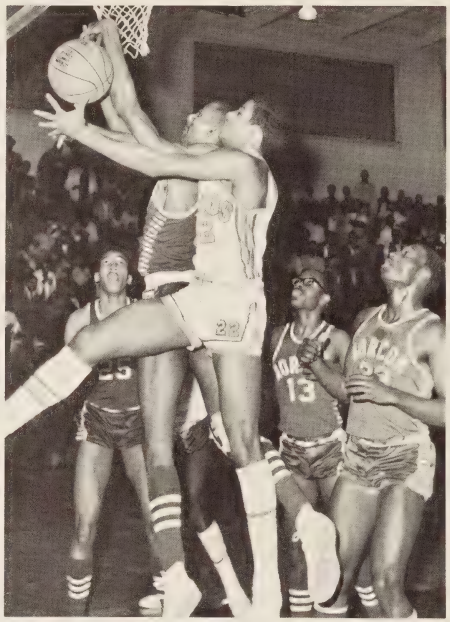

Huntington's Vikings pulled off an almost unbelievable, story-book come-back in the second half of the Norcom-Viking game to defeat Norcom 64--62.

Linwood Cosby, Huntington's cool-headed and quick-handed co-captain, refusing to be rattled by an all-count zone press by Norcom, directed his team during the come-back and in the end got the points which meant the difference.

Trailing by 19 points (50--31) in the first minute of the second half, the Vikings rallied Norcom 33--12 in the next 15 minutes.

Marvin Spratley finds the action rough under the basket as he scrambles for possession of the ball.

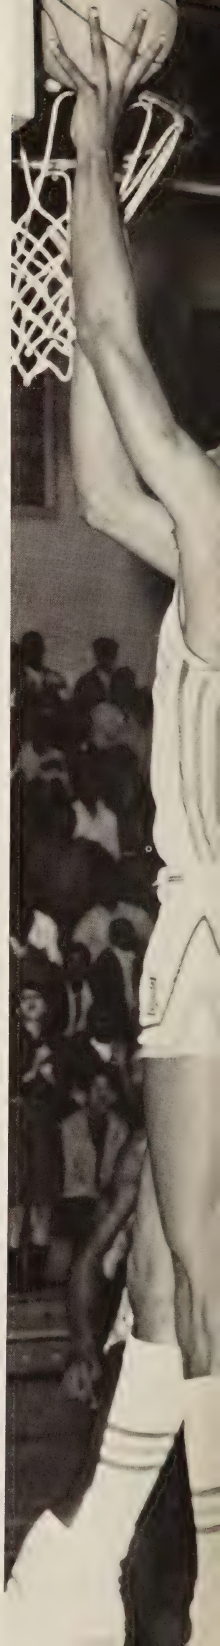

Linwood Cosby grabs for the ball in spite of the overwhelming odds against him.

HEY REF GIVE US A BREAK!

The expressions on the faces of coaches Davis and Crittenden, and Mr. D. Barr, announcer, seem to reveal that the action is hot and furious in the last seconds of the game.

Senior, Michael Hargraves a 6'4" guard, gives the Vikings' squad added depth, as he's a top-flight performer on offense and defense.

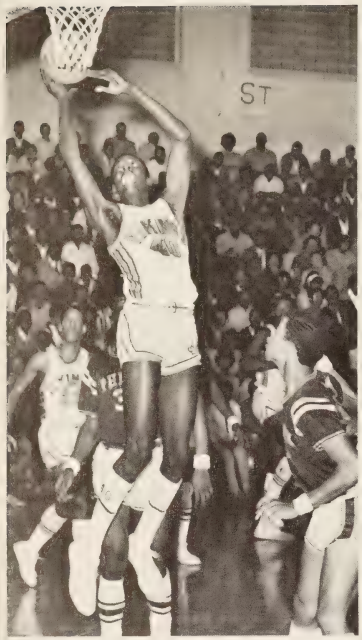

Mike taps the ball in for two points in the last seconds of the game.

William Wynn makes two points.

Cheerleaders are jubilant at the victory of their team.

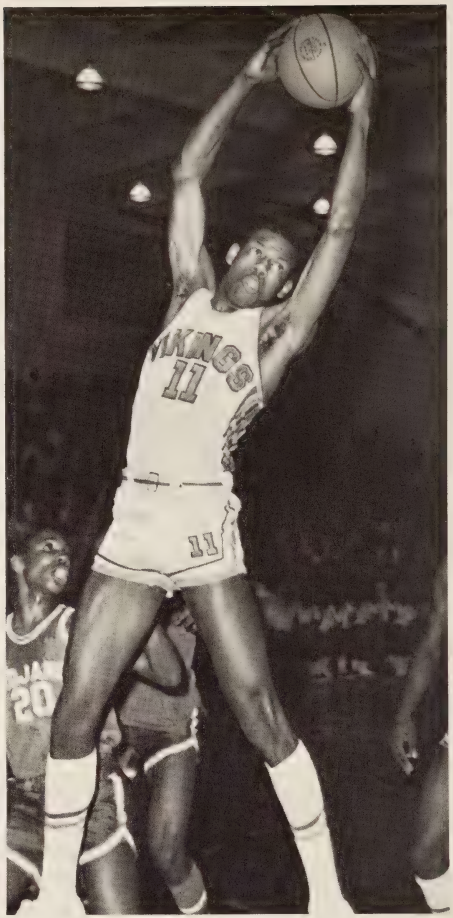

An errant Viking shot is saved as Marvin Spratley (40) tips it into the basket for two points.

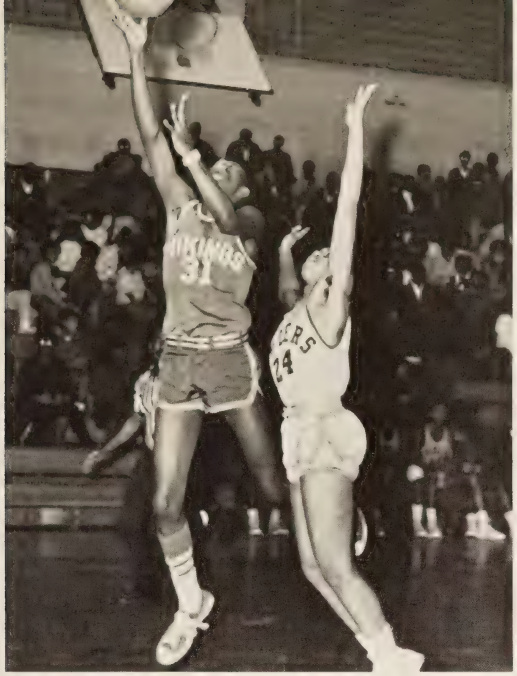

Gridiron quarterbacks, Tommy Nottingham and Linwood Cosby, reunite on the Viking court.

Mike Hargraves grabs a rebound.

An exciting evening of basketball is enough to remove temporarily the thought of making lesson plans from the minds of many faculty members.

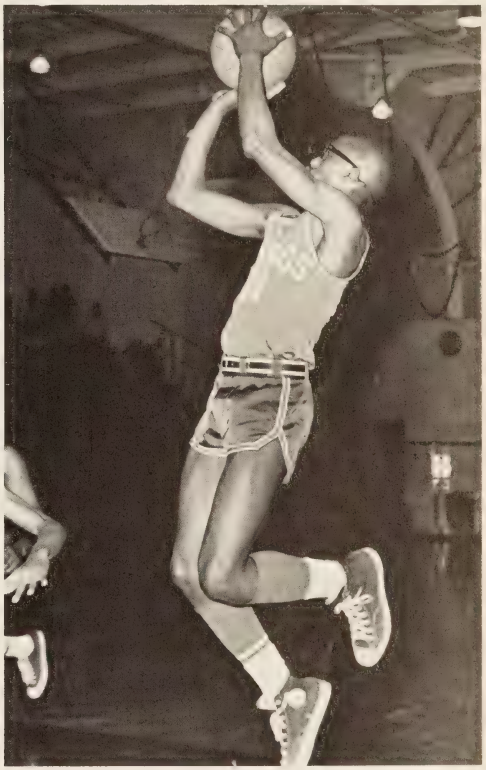

With a skillful maneuver against a Berkeley player, Claude Butcher goes in for a perfect two points.

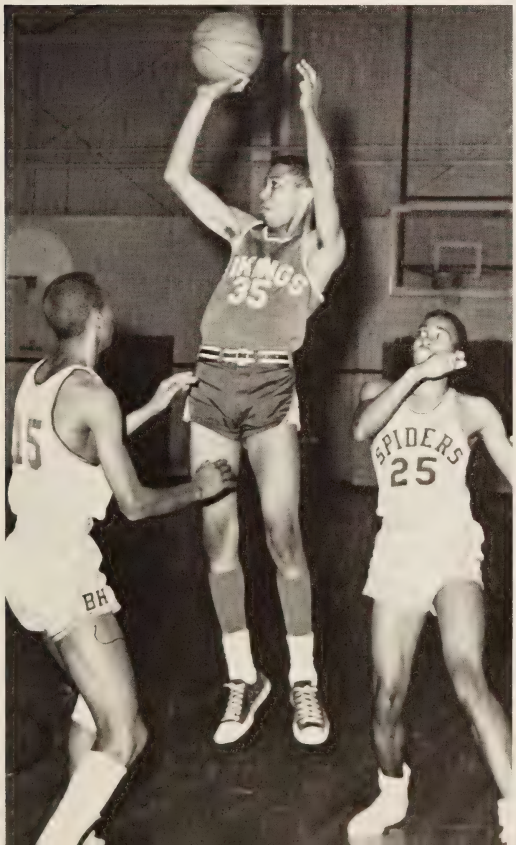

J-V'S IN ACTION

While serving as the preliminary entertainment during the basketball games, the Junior Varsity is a group of young men who acquires practical training in the area of basketball. The training which the members of the team receive often proves invaluable when the time comes for the selection of the first-string team.

Much of the success of our J-V team can be attributed to its pressing defense, fine execution of the break, and excellent ball control.

Kenneth Bunch displays good form as he goes in for a field goal.

Norman Jarrett leaps high to raise the score for the Vikings.

Coaches Emory Turner of Phenix and Thad Madden of Huntington congratulate each other after the York Relays where both schools made outstanding showings.

Tony McNair takes the baton from Joe Banks in the Sprint Medley at the York Relays.

ANOTHER GOOD YEAR FOR THE VIKING SPRINTERS

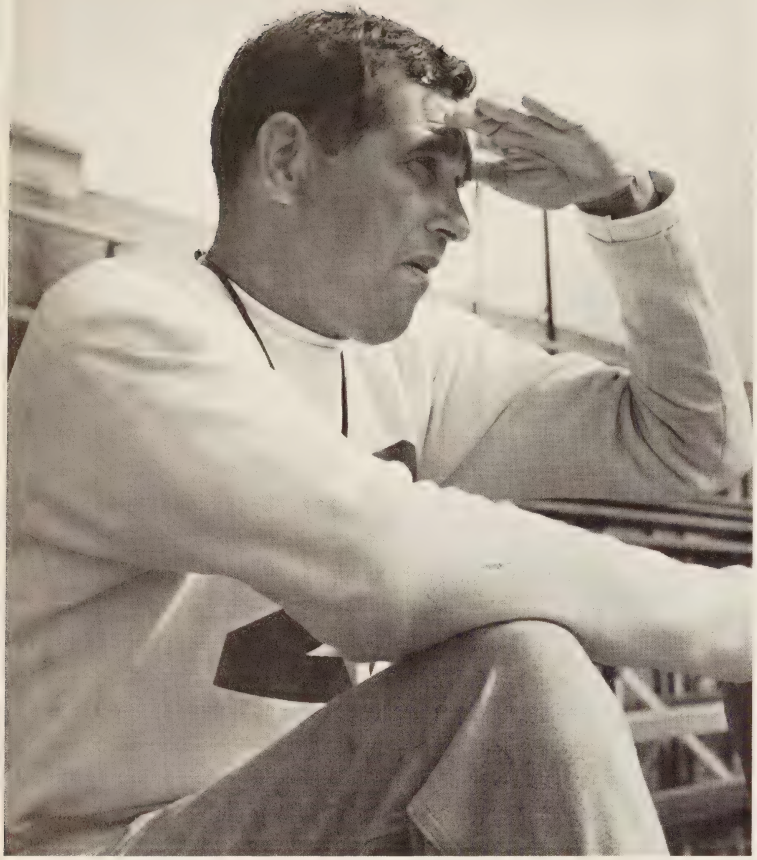

Track is an exciting sport at Huntington. Because of its dedication, desire to succeed and stamina, the team is among the best in the state of Virginia. Over a 24 year span, under the masterful guidance of Coach Madden, the team has accomplished many State Championship wins. Last season the team captured the State Championship and were second place winners in the Eastern District meet.

Jerome Johnson soars over the last hurdle in the 120 yard high hurdle race against cross town rival Carver High School.

Speedy Alex Bowens makes his bid for victory in the 440 yard dash in a duel meet held on the Vikings track.

Coach Thad Madden keeps a watchful eye out for Huntington's future Bob Hayes.

Joseph Banks moves out front in the one mile run in a duel meet against Phenix.

Charles Eason puts the shot in a duel meet under the watchful eye of Coach Ted Bacote.

Edward Woody soars over the hurdles in the 180 yard low hurdles race.

Pamela Poe exhibits the quality of a good tennis player as she swings her racket to win a match over the Baby Pirates of Phenix.

The Viking players swing a racket that would defeat any opponent. Under the guidance of Coach George Davis the squad has maintained an outstanding record for the past three years and is looking forward to a victorious season this year.

Designed to teach good sportsmanship, to build sound bodies and minds, tennis has become a growing activity at Huntington. The team has won the Eastern District Championship for two years.

Coach G. Davis discusses the win over Phenix for the 1967 Eastern District Tennis Championship, with Phenix's coach, Rufus Grant.

ARE THEY PHYSICALLY FIT?

In this age, when machines cause man to sit more than ever, it is vital for growing boys and girls to receive stimulating physical exercise. Classes in physical education meet this need by providing each pupil with a variety of activities.

Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Hazel Eason, girls are taught the fundamental skills of gymnastics.

BON VOYAGE

The American Institute For Foreign Study has a yearly program for students with average and above ability to study at various universities in Europe for six weeks during the summer. For the first time a group of Huntington students will get the opportunity to participate in this program. At the University of Exeter in England, William Marks, Russell Owens, Pamela Riddick, Sharon Stith, and Sherian Christian will study Modern Britain, Englist Literature, the Post-War English novel and Modern English Drama.

On July 10th the students will depart from Kennedy Airport and fly by jet to London, England. For forty days William, Pamela, Sharon, Russell, and Sherian will study at the University of Exeter, and the remaining ten days will be spent touring Paris, France, and London, England.

Students attending college will be able to receive credit for the various courses they took while studying at the University and they will not have to enroll in any of these courses in their freshman year of college.

Mrs. M. E. Bacote one of our social studies teachers will chaperone the group.

SINCERITY OF PURPOSE

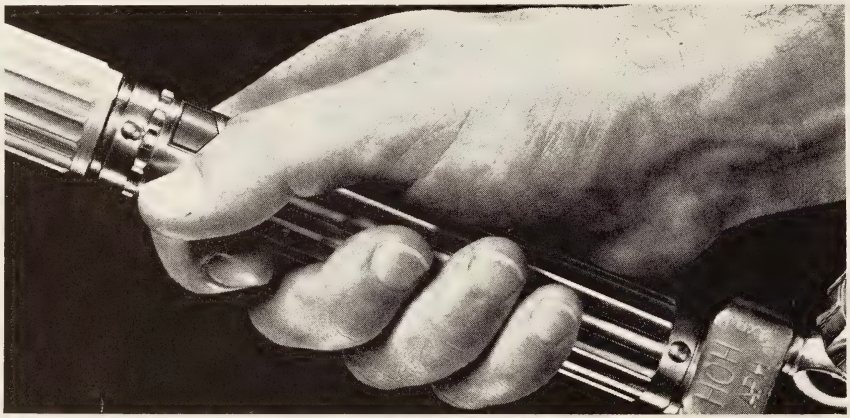

Through the years their ultimate goal has been to excel. As they go out into the world to serve and to continue to learn, Faye White and Linwood Wells realize they must continue to cling, as in previous years, to the information which has been imparted to them by their parents and teachers.

ADVERTISEMENTS

GOOD SHIPS START HERE

Fine ships don't roll off a production line. They're built efficiently and well only by men whose skills and knowledge are broad. That's why Newport News begins at the beginning with its own selective Apprentice School.

High School graduates enter on the basis of academic record. But selectivity doesn't stop there. In classroom and shop, in the drafting room and out in the yard, each man's special abilities are watched and developed.

Some become skilled and versatile machinists. Others become expert electricians or precision tool makers. Many become supervisors. Some earn scholarships for advanced training at colleges and technical schools.

We think the School's a pretty inspiring place, because its end results are good men and good ships.

A Friend

As we depart through these doors we leave behind us five years of striving to prepare ourselves for life and its demands. We shall miss our dear ole days at Huntington High School, but now we are ready for new experiences and new goals to conquer.

As we go out into the world to serve and to continue to learn, we seek what all desire--success, the road to happiness. As we go forward to seek those things we now long wanted and dreamed for, it is hoped that each one of us will make a worthwhile contribution in life as men and women of tomorrow.

We wish to acknowledge the help given us by our parents and teachers. We realize that our many successes were possible because of their help and we are very appreciative.

The 1968 HUNTINGTONIAN staff acknowledges the support, interest, and cooperation of our administrators:

MR. W. D. SCLAES, Principal
MR. C. C. JOHNSON, Assistant Principal
MR. W. H. HOLMES, Assistant Principal
MRS. M. WILSON, Dean of Girls

To Miss Peggye L. Johnson, Miss B. J. Baraham, and Mr. Gerald Blakeney, our advisors who have given unselfishly of their time, energy, and guidance in the production of our yearbook, we express our deepest appreciation.
